Dedication

TO

JOEL O. CHEEK

A loyal son of Tennessee, who represents the highest type of Southern nobility and chivalry in social, church, and business life; whose greatest delight has been to serve and enrich God's world by his good cheer, his generous giving, his human kindness, and his faith in Youth; whose gifts together with others have made possible our Alma Mater; we, the Senior Class of 1927, in grateful acknowledgment, dedicate this volume.

Foreword

THE BUFFALO of 1927 is our contribution to the enduring record of Milligan. It is an illustrated story of the events that have made this year different from any other. If it shall serve to recall a fond reminiscence, or to brighten a pleasant recollection; if perchance it shall in any way enhance the glory of Milligan, our purpose will be fulfilled.

Senior

MILDRED LEE McDONALD, A.B.
SPRING CITY, TENN.

Philomathean Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Foreign Language Club 4; Dramatic Club 4; Chorus Class 4.

Miss Mildred McDonald came to us four years ago just out of High School. Soon she will return to her native city, an alumna of Milligan. With her charming personality she has endeared herself to us all, but another act in life's drama, calls for a change, and the stage setting may be according to her present plans, in a remote part of the earth.

WALTER ALTON LOVELESS, A.B.
KNOXVILLE, TENN.

Athenian Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4, Pres, 3; Latin Club 3; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Ministerial Association 1, 2, 3, 4, Pres. 4; Chorus Class 4.

A living proof that Burke was wrong when he lamented that the Age of Chivalry was gone. Though blest with temper which leaps over cold decrees, the unclouded rays of his good nature make the morrow cheerful as today. Walter has a determined mind and is energetic and aggressive—qualities greatly to be desired.

HORACE PETERS, A.B.
CLARKRANGE, TENN.

American Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4;
Forensic Council 2, 3; Student Assistant in Science 2, 3, 4.

Quiet, determined, aggressive, efficient and painstaking is "Pete." No matter what the activity or where the place, we find him there doing his best. With such a reputation we hope that he will succeed in life as he has in college. Our best wishes follow him.

PAULINE HAZEL LIPFORD, A.B.
BUTLER, TENN.

Ossolian Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4,
Pres. 3; Secretary Senior Class 4; Voice
Graduate 4.

Miss Pauline Lipford exemplifies in her character a happy blending of those qualities which answer the age-long description of true womanhood. She has been a painstaking student during her college career. In addition to her literary attainments, she has a cultivated voice.
Her future is radiant with promise of a life of usefulness.

LAWRENCE DERTHICK, A.B.
MILLIGAN COLLEGE, TENN.

Athenian Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4,
Pres 1; Student Rep. College 2, 3; Stampede Staff 3; Latin Club 2, 3; Dramatic Club 3; Business Mgr. Buffalo 4.

The subject of this sketch is versatile beyond measure. He can qualify as a "booster", an "optimist", and an "diplomat." He is an expert in salesmanship, friendship, statesmanship, and courtship. No more promising youth has trod the hill than Lawrence. The siren voice of more than one vocation is tempting the talents of this young scion. Here's to the acme of success for you, and here's to the things we know you'll do.

G. L. BLISSETT, A.B.
ADRIAN, GA.

Buffalo Staff 4; American Literary Society 2, 3, 4; "M" Club 2, 3, 4; Football 2, 3, 4; Alternate Capt. Football 4;
Dramatic Club 2.

"Pop" Blissett has no "sham", no "deceit", no "enemies", no "A's" and no "regrets." He is an unsophisticated collegian in heart and in appearance. He abounds with loyalty to a friend, devotion to a cause, and fidelity to his "colors." Here is one whose acquaintances number his friends.

LOUIS RALPH SCHUBERT, A.B.
WARTBURG, TENN.

Athenian Literary Society 2, 3, 4, Pres. 4; Stampede Staff 3; Dramatic Club 2, 3; Asst. Business Mgr. Buffalo 4; Mgr. Varsity Baseball 4; Latin Club 2, 3.

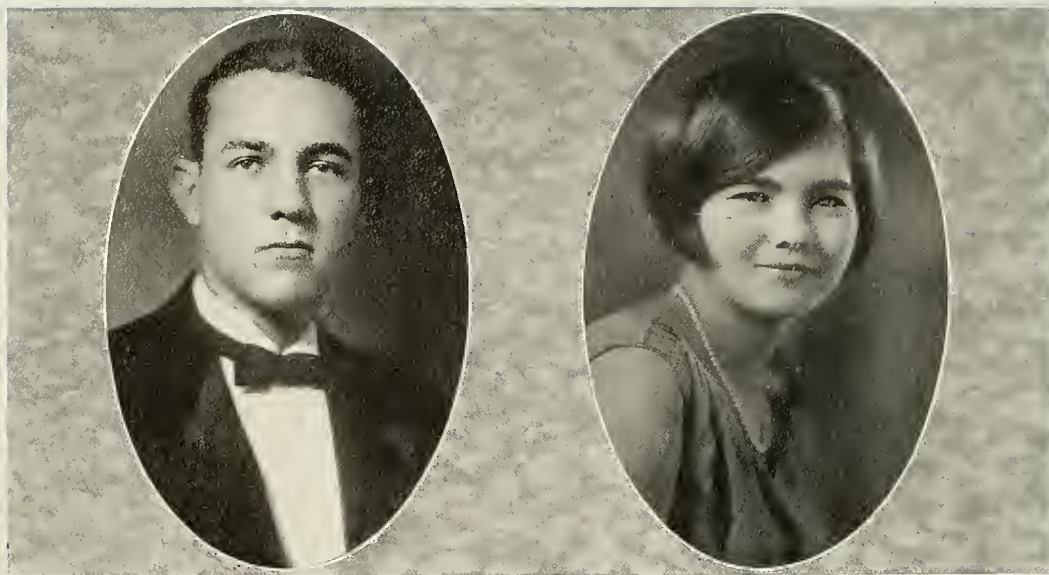

There hailed one day from the "Metropolis" of Wartburg, a handsome young swain endowed with Sophomore proclivities. This was none other than our own "Schubert." He is keen, clever, versatile, and "unlucky." He has a bright mind, a bright future and a bright spot in Johnson City. He possesses a depth of heart and a power of head, that future years will reveal. Somewhere Louis will do a real piece of work in the world's program.

MARGARET CROUCH, A.B.
JOHNSON CITY, TENN.

Philomathean Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4, Pres. 4; Stampede Staff 3; Intercollegiate Debate 3; Orchestra 2, 3; Editor Buffalo 4; Dramatic Club 2, 3; Latin Club 2, 3.

From whence did the gods assemble the ingredients for this unique personality? Keenest intellectual acumen, and marvelous philosophical insight characterize the subject of this sketch. Margaret is talented, versatile, clever, and independent. She is very punctilious regarding study hours, and is extremely patient with the faculty. A closer look discloses a warm heart and a sympathetic soul-qualities that really count in the world.

LESLIE E. PAYNE, A.B.
WEBSTER GROVES, MO.

Athenian Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4;
Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4, Capt. 4; Glee Club
2; Dramatic Club 2, 3; "M" Club 1, 2,
3, 4; Latin Club 2, 3.

Here is the embodiment of the true sportsman-like spirit. Captain Payne loves a scrap, and with the form of a cavalier, he winds in and out while the score rings up "two." Less is modest, polite, and gracious. Before any one expects he will discover a proud niche in the business world and fill it to overflowing. Here's to the "big game of life" for our subject and may the spirit of the old Buffaloes prevail in every contest.

DAISY ROBERTA BUTCHER, A.B.
KNOXVILLE, TENN.

Philomathean Literary Society 1, 2, 3,
4; Student Volunteer Band 1, 2, 3, 4;
Tennessee Student Volunteer Union 3, 4.

A bold adventuress in the conquest of truth, a clear-cut thinker with a heroism that speaks straight from the shoulder, a liberty-loving spirit, as gentle as the snow-flake, and as dynamic as the thunder bolt. Daisy is not given to joke or jest, but she "Kids" very "Well." She is a princess in the royal family of noble purposes, and whether at work or play, her prayer is "Let me live in a house by the side of the road, and be a friend to man."

J. DAVID WHEELER, B.S.
PIKEVILLE, TENN.

American Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4;
"M" Club 4; Latin Club 2; Football 1, 2, 3, 4.

"Little David", is the proud wearer of a permanent tooth-brush. He has to wear it as constant brush-work defense against the girls since his naturally attractive qualities are coupled with a manly modesty, the dears have to take the offensive. Seriously, though, Dave will make his mark and our sincerest good wishes and interest go with him.

KENNETH HALL McCORKLE, A.B.
NEWBERN, TENN.

Athenian Literary Society 2, 3, 4;
Ministerial Association; Forensic Council.

Our hats are off to a man who stays—and to a man who wins his degree while supporting a family, the highest credit of all. But to the man who in addition to all, that achieves such a record for true scholarship and Christian manhood as has Kenneth McCorkle, words are a poor tribute. Farewell, and Godspeed.

BRODIE H. THOMPSON, B.S.
MEMPHIS, TENN.

President Senior Class; American Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; "M" Club 3, 4; Varsity Baseball 2, 3, 4; Manager Football 3; Milligan Reserve Coach 4; Dramatic Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

Scarcely, if ever, has so much genuine manhood been compassed in so short a stature. In manner and bearing, he is a Chesterfield, in matters of authority he is finality. For quickness and keen insight, he is a walking text book on applied psychology. No task is too heavy for Brodie if it is for the college he serves or the friend he loves. The boarding department will miss his services and his counsel, but the world will welcome his enthusiasm and his advice.

JULIA ERIN SHELTON, A.B.
RAMER, TENN.

Philomathean Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Pres. Literary Society 4.

Erin has ever exemplified the true spirit and ideals of Milligan. Very rare and precious elements were compounded in the forming of her character. We find her always genuine, never careless or idle, ever true, sweet, and efficient. She set for herself high standards in every phase of college life, and she now goes forth to her life's career with our tenderest benediction.

CARLOS SPRINGFIELD
SODDY, TENN.

American Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4;
Varsity Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity
Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; "M" Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

After having been with us three and a half years, Carlos left Milligan College and entered Georgia Tech. We were very sorry to lose him and in whatever he undertakes we wish him the best of luck.

MABEL ANDERSON, A.B.
MILLIGAN COLLEGE, TENN.

Philomathean Literary Society 1, 2,
3, 4; Latin Club 2, 3; Tennis Club 1;
Dramatic Club 2, 3.

Miss Mabel Anderson from heredity and environment has much for which to be thankful. In the shadow of these mountains she has spent her girlhood.
Beautiful in features and still more beautiful in character, she comes to her graduation. Milligan, you are now honoring one who will in turn honor you.

JOSEPHINE C. CARPENTER, A.B.
JOHNSON CITY, TENN.

Entered from Bethany College '26;
Student Volunteer Band 3, 4; Orchestra
3, 4; Ossolian Literary Society 3, 4;
Latin Club 3.

Josephine came to us from Bethany College, and in the two years she has spent with us, we have learned to love her, and to realize the many talents that are hers. A talented musician, a good student, active in religious work, and a pleasing personality—these are the characteristics of Jo. We predict for her a very successful career, and we know that she will reach the top in whatever line of work she enters.

ARCHIE WILLIAM GRAY, A.B.
RODNEY, ONTARIO, CANADA

Athenian Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4;
Ministerial Association 1, 2, 3, 4; Forensic Council 2, 3.

Quiet, industrious, fitly filling the maxim of Hesiod, "Diligence increases the fruit of labor"; having come to the place where he has learned that the most perfect man is he who shall have sought to understand everything for himself, and devise what may be best afterward and to the end.

HELEN MARY DRUDGE, A.B.
CLARENCE, N. Y.

Philomathean Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Foreign Language Club 4; Girls' Circle 1, 2, 3, 4.

Helen is a dainty, lovable girl with a sunny smile and a friendly way. She wears her Senior's dignity lightly, but none the less really. To describe her fairly would sound almost insincere, but for thoughtfulness, sincerity, friendship and understanding, she is unsurpassed. "A perfect woman, nobly planned, to warn, to comfort and command."

R. BERNAL LAPPIN, B.S.
JOHNSON CITY, TENN.

Varsity Football 3, 4; Varsity Basketball 4; "M" Club 4; Male Quartette 4; Orchestra 3, 4; Life Saving Corps 4.

Bernal Lappin is serious, sensible and sane—is mysterious, yet openly frank. He is reticent, yet positive. On the gridiron, in the classroom and on "the triangle" Bernal excels, and though he does not openly advertise we know from experience that he has plenty of goods to deliver.

WELDON W. McCOLLUM, A.B.
JONESBORO, TENN.

American Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4;
Baseball Squad 2, 3, 4; Varsity Basketball 4; "M" Club.

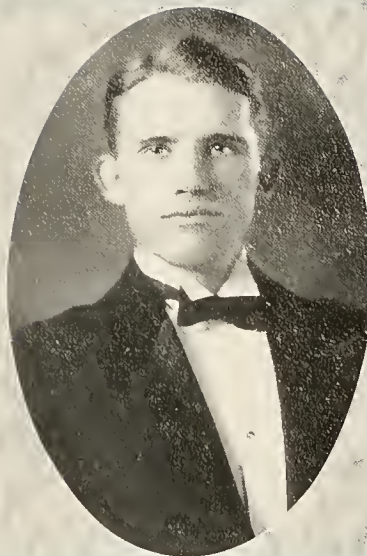

Athlete, diplomat, student, philosopher, and joker—these are the dominant characteristics of Weldon. We have enjoyed him, and he has enjoyed his college career though it has been full of narrow escapes. Many times has Weldon barely escaped the fatal darts of Dan Cupid himself, but we feel sure that he will succumb eventually. We will miss Mac and think of him pleasantly.

SHIRL E MILLER B.S.
JOHNSON CITY, TENN.

American Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4;
Student Assistant in Science; Life Saving Corps.

Shirl Everett Miller came to us as a graduate of the Johnson City High School. For four years he has acted as student assistant in science, and has been very successful in this work. Shirl is dignified, quiet and unassuming, even though he "Crowes" every night.

MABEL FLORENCE LACY, A.B.
FORDTOWN, TENN.

Ossolian Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4,
Pres. 3; Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Latin
Club 3; Music Department.

Mabel Lacy is a student and a scholar.
Her literary work at Milligan has been of a very high type, and in addition she has done excellent work in her music.
She is a leader, a good sport, and a wonderful pal. Mabel impresses us with her sincerity, and we are never in doubt as to her ability, and her willingness to serve.

LESTER C. REYNOLDS, A.B.
ELIZABETHTON, TENN.

Entered from Lynchburg College '25;
Athenian Literary Society 3, 4; Forensic
Council 4; Life Saving Corps 4; Male
Quartette 4.

"Les" should have been named Moore, then our job would have been so very poetic. As it is, we shall have to confine ourselves to mere truth and as recording angel write upon the scroll of time—
Lester Reynolds, Student, Athlete, Musician, Friend—A Real Man.

P. H. WELSHIMER MEMORIAL LIBRARY
MILLIGAN COLLEGE, TENN. 37682

JAMES FLORINE CANTRELL, A.B.
FULTON, KY.

Philomathean Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Volunteer Band 1, 2, 3, 4.

The Florence Nightengale of the college takes her leave in '27. "We shall truly miss the water when the well is dry." A smile, a readiness to serve, a sympathetic mind, an unobtrusive soul, a world vision, an utter abandonment for others; this is our Florine. "Though the cables of devotion be stretched to span the ocean wide, they will be as unbreakable, as will be our memory of her gentle deeds be indestructible."

ALBERT L. PRICE, A.B.
ERWIN, TENN.

American Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 1, 2, 3, 4, Pres 4; Buffalo Staff 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4.

Albert possesses a versatility and a genial nature which places him by popular choice in the front ranks of all college activities. He is a real hero; a born actor; he possesses a keen insight, and a friendly smile; these constitute some of the elements which combine to form a guaranty for a worthwhile place for "Ab" out in the big world.

W. G. SMALLWOOD

KINGSPORT, TENN.

Varsity Football 2, 3, 4; American Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4, Pres 4; "M" Club 3, 4; Stampede Staff 3; Latin Club 2, 3; Forensic Council 1, 2, 3, 4.

For four years Stoney has been a student at Milligan, and during this time he has taken an active part in every phase of college life. Whatever he does in the future and wherever he may drift, we shall remember him and rejoice in his successes.

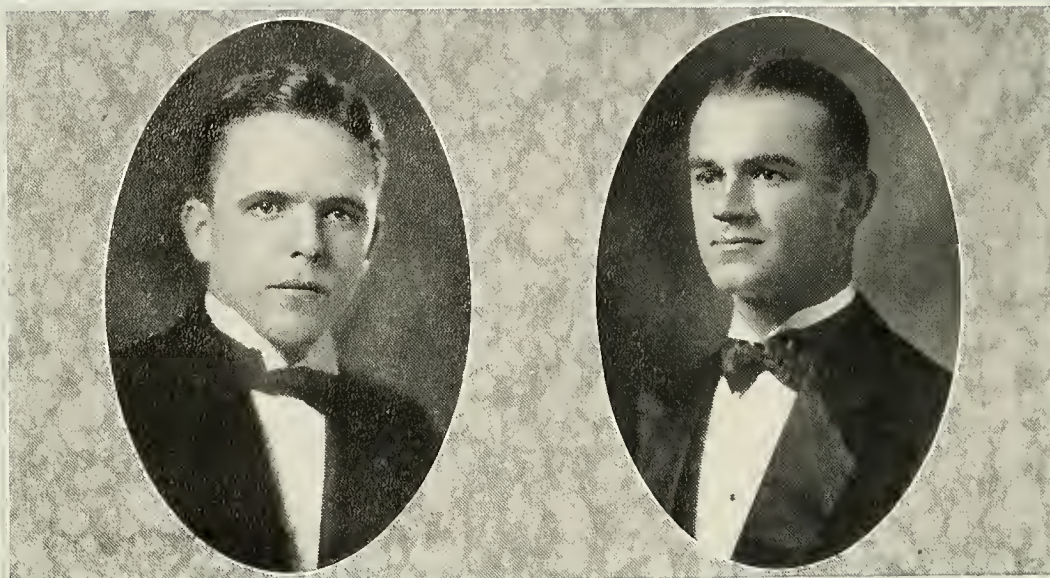

WILLIAM M. FERGUSON, A.B.

ELIZABETHTON, TENN.

American Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; "M" Club 3, 4; Latin Club 3.

William Ferguson is a young man that everybody loves. We call him "Bill." It is easy and safe to prophesy for him a useful career. Education has not "spoiled" him. It has only quickened and strengthened those native talents which form the basis of all great men's greatness. Bill, we are with you.

RONDAH HYDER, A.B.
JOHNSON CITY, TENN.

American Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4;
Forensic Council 3, 4; Stampede Staff 3;
Varsity Basketball 4; "M" Club 4; Football Squad 2, 3; Baseball Squad 2, 3;
Dramatic Club 2.

Rondah Hyder is one of Milligan's most promising young men. Truth, honor, integrity and lofty ideals; these are qualities too rarely found in modern life, but they are his. He will certainly win his way to distinction in his chosen activity;
and in him the world will feel the impress of a forceful personality.

THOMAS JEFFERSON BOND, B.S.
SODDY, TENN.

American Literary Society 2, 3, 4;
Varsity Football 3, 4; "M" Club 3, 4;
Varsity Basketball 2, 3; Forensic Council
3; Pres. Senior Council 4.

Having learned everything available in Soddy, Tennessee, Tom entered Milligan College as a Sophomore, and is now completing his Senior year. As a student he has made a reputation for thorough work; as a debater, he has made for himself an enviable record; and as an athlete, he has been successful. In whatever profession Tom chooses, we prophesy for him a career of efficient service and fidelity to the highest ideals.

BERTHA EVELYN WILSON, A.B.
MILLIGAN COLLEGE, TENN.

Ossolian Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4;
Stampede Staff 3; Art Editor Buffalo 4;
Dramatic Club 3, 4; Latin Club 3, 4.

Bertha entered Milligan four years ago as a Freshman, and we are loth to bid her farewell as she finishes her college career. However, from all indications we will hear from her again. She is a very talented young lady and the world will welcome her as a short-story writer, or as a great reader. Our best wishes go with you "Flower-of-the-North", and we are counting on your success.

BESSIE MARIETTA WILSON, A.B.
MILLIGAN COLLEGE, TENN.

Ossolian Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4;
Dramatic Club 3, 4; Latin Club 3, 4.

Bessie comes to us from Michigan, and we are truly grateful to the North for such an honor. She has been with us during the entire four years of her college course, and we find in her a worthy and a congenial friend. She is modest, quiet, clever and ambitious. Wherever Bessie decides to cast her lot, our thoughts and our best wishes are with her.

JOHN O. BROADWAY, B.S.
PARIS, TENN.

Athenian Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4;
Forensic Council 2; Life Saving Corps.

John Broadway can successfully qualify as a walking encyclopedia, an expert swimmer, a true friend, an efficient courter. Scarcely can a more versatile and talented person be found than John. We wish success for him.

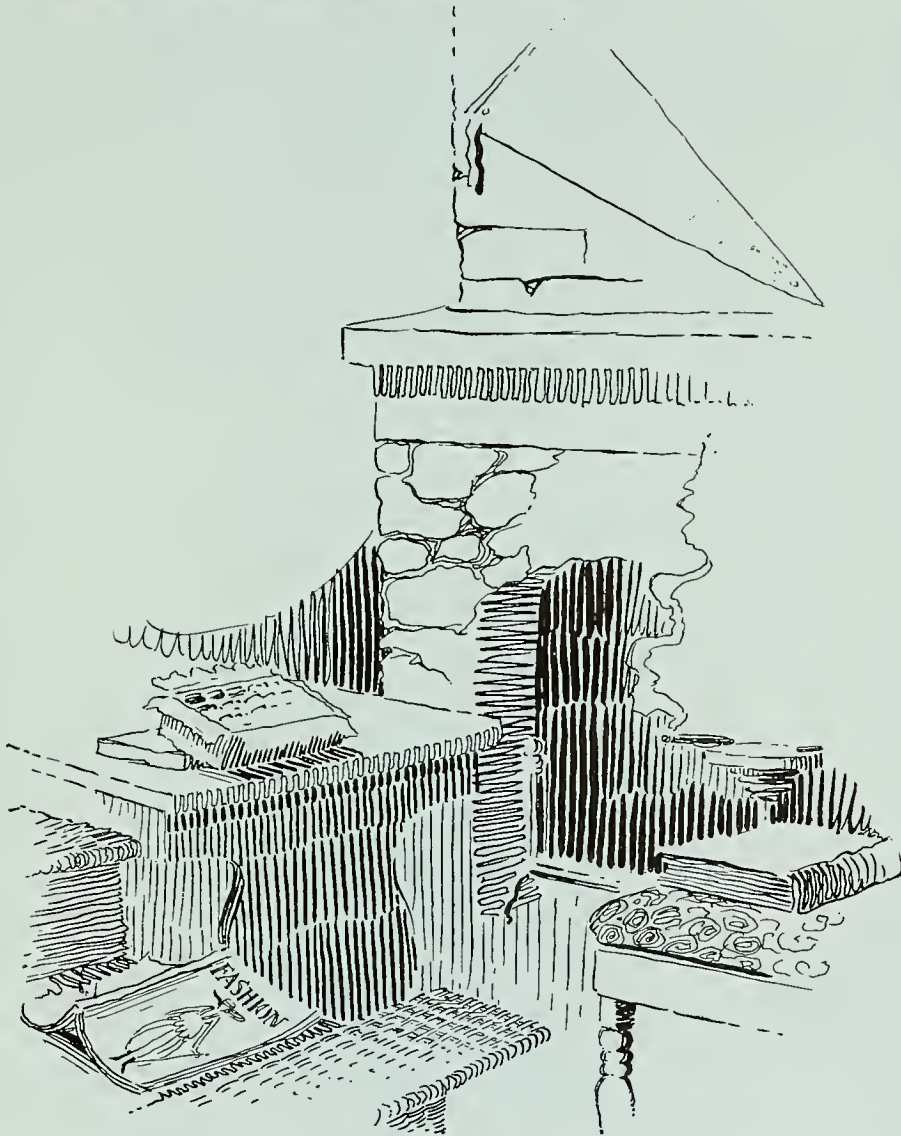

LONNIE CLIFTON ELMORE, B.S.
SNOWVILLE, VA.

Athenian Literary Society 1, 2, 3, 4;
Dramatic Club 2; Pre-Med Club 3;
Latin Club 2, 3.

Lonnie Elmore is one of the most popular boys at Milligan College, not only with the students, but with the faculty as well. He is a gentleman in the true sense of the word, and we appreciate him as such. Friendly, witty, handsome, and smart is Lonnie. We like you, Lonnie, and we know that yours will be a successful career, be it spent in Etowah or in some other country.

The students of French, German and Spanish, attending Dr. F. C. Edward's classes held an enthusiastic meeting on November the seventh of last year and founded the above named club, which is made up of at least one-half of the student body.

The club has no social features, but aims at an extension of class room work, enabling these students to acquire a greater fluency in the use of modern foreign languages through the presentation of easy plays, speech making and recitating. The club is composed of the following members.

Review of Football Season

There is a time in the athletic life of every school, when the prospects are good, but the season is poor; and such was the case of Milligan in 1927. Tobe Edwards had worked wonders with new material in the two years previous and with a large number of the letter men reentrning, it looked as if Milligan would have a banner year on the gridiron. However, bad luck, together with a hard schedule, worked together to make it one of the worst.

Tusculum won the opening game of the season by a lone field goal, and Lappin, crack halfback received a broken arm, while other men received injuries which hindered throughout the season. Waddell, Faire and Blissitt were out during most of the games, while Barron was also injured.

With ill luck as a companion, the boys seemed to lose all pep and did not play their usual high type games. In the King College game, however, the Buffaloes came into their own. They swept down the field on the Torandoes and knocked at the marking door throughout the game, but a penalty for off sides cost one touchdown, and a fumble cost another. It seemed as if Dame Fortune passed Milligan by during this game just as she had done in all the others.

Blissitt, Lappin and Bond will be lost by graduation, and it will be a difficult task to find men who can take their places. However, the outlook for a winning team next year is promising.

J. TOBE EDWARDS

Coach

Three years ago this serious minded young man came to Milligan from Georgia Tech and proceeded to place the old school on the map in the world of athletics. His fine sportsmanship, and clean tactics made him one of the most popular coaches in this section. During the past season when everything went wrong, Edwards was still the cool, smiling young Georgian with the same fine sportsmanship. A fine coach, a good fellow, and above all a gentleman and promoter of clean athletics.

CAPT. BERT WADDELL

Guard

Captain Waddell started the season in fine style, and it seemed as though it would be the greatest of his career, but injuries in the Lenoir-Rhyne game handicapped him for the remainder of the year. This also hurt the team, for Waddell was not only a great player, but was a capable leader, as well.

ERNEST KEGLEY

Manager

"Keg" was always on the job and handled the business end of the team in grand style. He was never missing when anything was needed, but kept everything in shape, and was Coach Edwards' right hand man. A better manager could not have been found than Ernest.

WADE DENNIS

Fullback

Wade is a good line plunger and a passer of ability. He gained consistently through the line, and his ability and popularity won for him the right to be captain of next year's team. Dennis is a good clean football player.

STONEY SMALLWOOD

Center

Stoney came to us from the Kingsport High School where he was an outstanding star. He has played with us for four years, and has proven himself to be a football player worthy of consideration. Smallwood is one of Milligan's most valued men.

ALLIE WILDER

End

When you speak about scrapping football players, put Wilder's name first. He was a fighter every minute, and one of the surest receivers of a pass to grace the Grid at Milligan. Wilder was small in stature, but not in grit, and this one thing carried him to the top.

GEORGE BYRD

Center

George Byrd, playing his first year of college football, stepped into the line-up when Smallwood was hurt and handled the pivot position in excellent style. He possessed a good pass, was good on defense, but lacked experience. With a season behind him, he is sure to be one of Milligan's best.

MILLIANS
TACKLE

EDWARD HARRY
Guard

From the sunny land of Florida came "Cadillac" Harry, carrying two hundred and forty pounds of bulk. This giant was destined to become one of the cogs in Milligan's machine, and he filled the shoes of Captain Waddell ably. "Cadillac" was a good guard and his steady play made him one of Milligan's most reliable men.

ARDIS MILLIANS
Tackle

This sturdy youth from the plains of Georgia possessed the ideal build for a tackle, since he was six feet, two inches tall, and weighed two hundred pounds. With a little more experience his name should rank with Milligan's greatest linesmen.

ADKISSON
HALF

HARVEY BULLINGTON
Quarterback

"Little Napoleon" earned his name by steady play and keen generalship. He is a triple-threat man, and though slow in getting started, played excellent football after he did get under way. Harvey has one more year left under the Orange and Black Standard.

GRADY ADKISSON
Halfback

Time after time the stands were forced to cheer this cotton-topped meteor as he sped down the grid for long gains. Grady was one of Milligan's most able ball carriers, and was one of the best backs on the team.

EDWARD HUDGENS
Trainer

"Doc" looked after the boys, and his untiring efforts with the injured were of great assistance to Coach Edwards. He never missed a practice and was always on hand when needed, rendering services that cannot be repaid in mere words.

DAVID WHEELER
End

"Little Dave" scrubbed four years and took the knocks of the Varsity players. He only weighed one hundred thirty-five pounds but he hit them all alike. For his true sportsmanship and faithful service he was awarded the Varsity "M." A man of his worth will always honor the letter he wears.

BERNOL LAPPIN
Halfback

A broken arm in the first game of the season caused Lappin to be out until the closing games. He was a great interferer and one of the best defensive men on the team. It would be difficult to find a better player than Lappin.

HENRY SENTELLE
Tackle

Henry played the same consistent game that has characterized his work during the past two seasons. He was always ready to fill the shoes of either tackle, and to fill them capably. Henry still has one more year, and it should be his best.

"DOC" HUDGINS
TRAINER

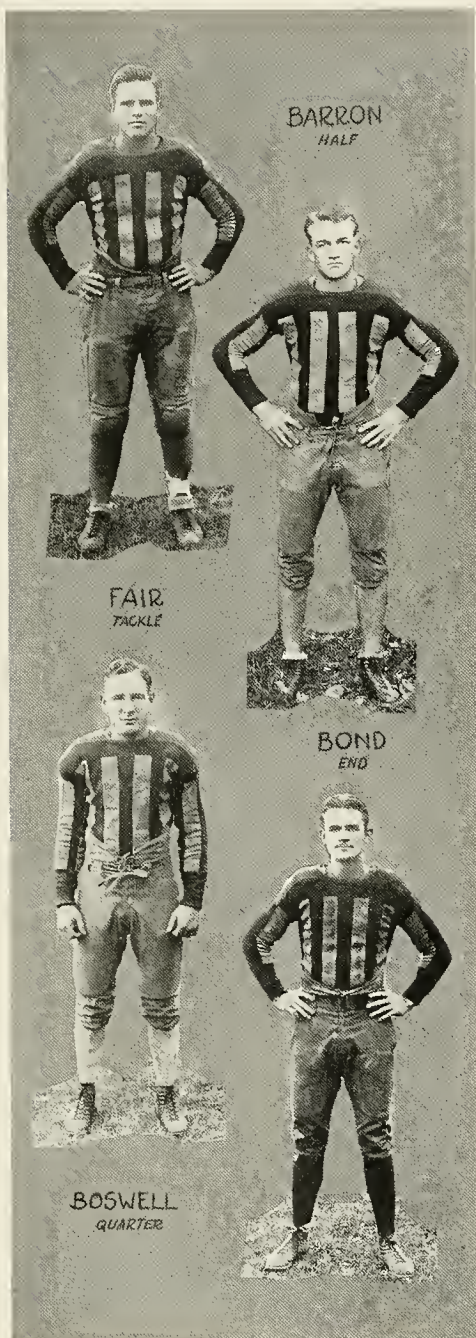

WHEELER

LAPPIN

SENTELLE
TACKLE

WARREN FAIRE

Tackle

Faire proved to be Milligan's most reliable tackle. He was good on defense, and time after time, he spilled the opposition's interference and dropped the runner for a loss. He played consistent football in every game, and was one of Milligan's most valued men.

CECIL BARRON

Halfback

A man with more natural ability than Barron never graced the gridiron of Milligan. He possessed all the natural qualities of a great back. He could carry the ball through the line or around the end, and could pass with the best of them.

T. J. BOSWELL

Quarterback

A veteran of many campaigns, but still a youngster when on the field. A steady, heady quarter, and one of the deadliest tackles that ever put on a uniform. Boswell showed what a man small in stature, but big in spirit can do.

T. J. BOND

End

Tom Bond wrote his name in football history at Milligan along side that of other great ends. When the opponents tried to circle his end they found Tom waiting. A great athlete, and one of the finest men to ever make Milligan's team.

HERSCHEL SPRINGFIELD End

A product of the scrubs, but an able end. He snagged a pass in the Carson-Newman game that netted forty yards and a touchdown for Milligan. Springfield needs experience, and he should have little trouble next year in being one of Milligan's best players.

LEE RITCHIE Halfback

Although this was his first year in college, Ritchie had played at Monroe A. & M. under the famous Red Barron. He did most of the punting, and was also a good man to carry the ball. Never brilliant, but always a steady player.

G. L. BLISSETT ALT. CAPTAIN Guard

"Pop" Blissett, for three seasons, the pride of Milligan's line, was not the Blissett of old, this season, but due to numerous injuries did not play up to his usual standard. However, when June rolls around, Milligan will lose one of the greatest guards yet to play for the Orange and Black.

ARTHUR SAMMONS Tackle

Sam came up from the scrubs, and by hard work and able play, he justly earned a place on the Varsity. He possessed the necessary qualities for a tackle, being big, racy and fast for his size. During his next two years of college football he should make his mark.

Scrub Football Team

The Milligan Junior Varsity had a good season despite the fact that they played the best teams in this section. Only two games were lost, one to Kingsport High, the other to Bristol, Va. High.

Under the careful guidance of Coach Brodie Thompson the team developed, and some of its members were raised to the Varsity before the season ended, and several more of them will earn a place on the team before their college careers end.

Van Winkle and Kennedy were the outstanding players, Kennedy showing promise of developing into a great halfback.

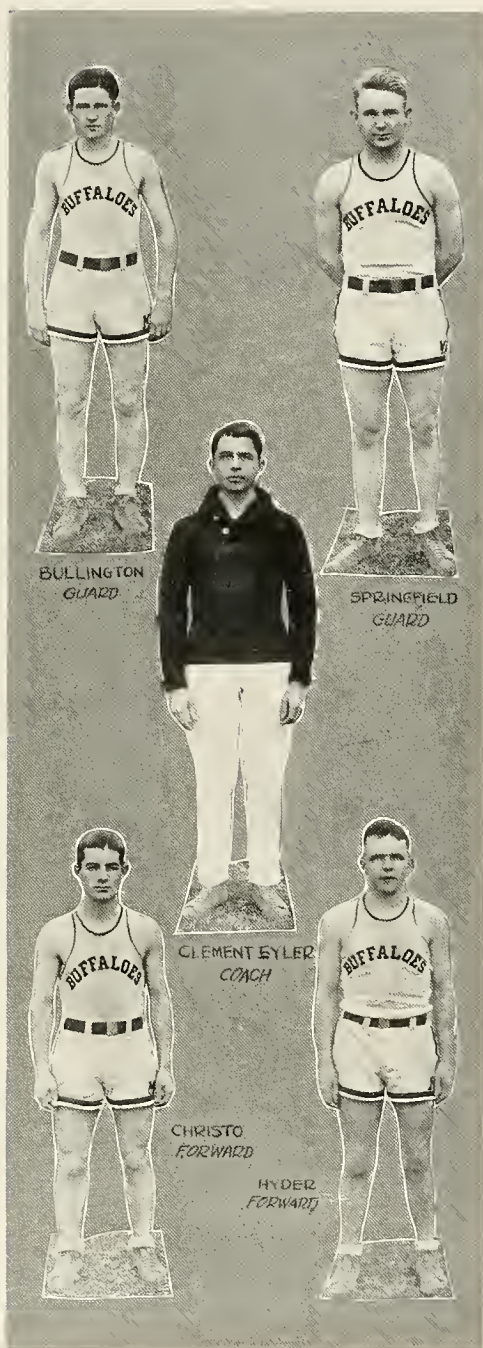

Boys' Basketball Team

Coach Clement Eyler's Hardwood Artists galloped on the lighted square with a success that was pleasing to all Buffalo followers, and when the smoke of the season's battle had cleared away, Milligan had twelve victories.

The local hoopers conquered the Crimson Tide of Lenoir twice, a feat never before accomplished by a Buffalo team. The great Charlotte "Y" and Canton "Y" of North Carolina fell before the magnificent work of the locals. Tusculum College fell twice, and Concord's Mountain Lions also tasted the bitter cup of defeat at the hands of Captain Payne and his crew.

Several other teams of less note fell beneath the onslaught of Milligan. The team was one of the best that ever represented the local school.

Coach Eyler worked wonders with his material, and to his should go a large share of the credit for the great team. Captain Payne is the only regular to be lost by graduation. He played a remarkable game and his shoes will be hard to fill.

HARVEY BULLINGTON
Guard

Little Harvey again came through on the court and filled the shoes of Springfield in great style. He is a dead shot at the basket, and hooped many buckets from mid-court. Harvey seems to be well on his way to three letters again this year.

HERSCHEL SPRINGFIELD
Guard

The old basket tossing ability seems to be born in the Soddy lads, for "Springy" is the third from this camp to earn the basketball letter. Herschel should be one of the five to represent Milligan next year.

CLEMENT EYLER
Coach

Coach Eyler developed one of Milligan's best teams. He plugged the gaps and built a foundation for a really great team in spite of many handicaps. Coach Eyler is a product of the University of Georgia and Columbia University.

JAMES CHRISTO
Forward

Maury High School of Norfolk, Virginia, is the proud owner of this fleet little forward. He was in the thick of the battle at all times. A good dribbler, a fine passer and a fair shot, Christo stepped into a regular berth his first year at College.

RONDAH HYDER
Forward

Rondah scrubbed for two years, but he never gave up hope, and when his chance came this year, he made the best of it. He was always a good shot, and under Coach Eyler, he hit his stride and proved to be a deadly basketman.

BERNAL LAPPIN
Center

Lappin came strong at the close of the season. He started slow, but gained momentum as time went by, and when the season ended he was at his best. Bernal is just coming into his own as an athlete, but he graduates in June, and thus his career will close.

WELDON McCOLLUM
Center

After two unsuccessful years on the hardwood, Old Mac came back and made the grade. He was a good man to rely on and was one of Coach Eyler's most able substitutes.

LESLIE PAYNE
CAPTAIN
Forward

Payne's accurate eye accounted for many of Milligan's points, while his leadership carried the team on to victory more than one game. Without a doubt, Payne is one of the best shots ever seen at Milligan. He graduates in June, and thus passes one of our best athletes.

CLARK GRANT
Guard

More than once this sturdy guard has covered two of the opposition as they swept down the floor. When the ball hit the backboard Grant shook it off and passed it out to his forwards. "Jake" is to captain the 1928 team.

ARCHIE GRANT
Forward

Archie hails from Soddy and is the brother to the famous "Jake." A great floor worker, and an accurate passer, he became one of the main cogs in the Milligan machine. He has all the qualities of a great athlete.

F. MELTON
COACH

CAPT. LITTLE
CENTER

SPIVEY
FORWARD

REYNOLDS
FORWARD

FRANCES MELTON

Coach

Miss Melton developed a team from absolutely raw material. The Goddess of Fortune was absent in all the games, and this fact alone accounted for more than half of the defeats. Miss Melton accepted defeat in her usual way, and was commended for her sportsmanship. A good coach and a fine leader are the characteristics of Miss Melton.

ANN LITTLE

CAPTAIN

Forward

Captain Ann Little showed marked ability as a leader, and as a player she ranked among the best. A good sport, a nice floor worker, and a passer of ability, Little proved herself one of Milligan's best.

KATHERINE SPIVEY

Forward

Spivey is fast, aggressive, and a possessor of nautral ability. In every game she played good basketball, and was Milligan's most outstanding player. With two more years ahead of her, she should become one of Milligan's greatest girl athletes.

VIRGINIA REYNOLDS

Forward

Virginia was a good passer, a fine floor worker, and a shooter of more than average ability. She was one of the leading scorers of the team, and in every game, was noted for her passing.

LOUISE WATKINS

Guard

"Jim" was a player who lacked the temperament but possessed the ability. She could pivot, pass and guard, and had many years of successful experience to her credit.

THELMA BELL

Guard

Thelma is the old "War Horse" type; steady, dependable, but not brilliant. She played more actual time than any other Milligan guard, and was especially good in the game with Concord College.

WILMA MOORE

Center

Wilma possessed rare ability and was one of the best goal tossers on the floor. She could be depended upon to play a steady, clean game, and with more experience should make a valuable player.

ORA LIGHT

Guard

Ora was fast, and she was a fine passer. She covered the floor in brilliant style and was one of the main cogs in the guarding. Ora worked well with Watkins and Bell.

Girls' Basketball Team

Milligan played a good brand of basketball during the entire season, and on several occasions it looked as if the jinx of ill luck had been broken, but each time the visitors would break through and toss a field basket shattering the hopes of a victory for Milligan.

The local lassies displayed unusual sportsmanship and team work. They were commended on all sides for their steady playing and their spirit.

Miss Melton worked wonders with her team, and, with such a foundation laid, a great team should develop next year.

Life Saving Corps

Milligan has added to her athletics a Life Saving Corps. This corps is made up of those who have satisfactorily passed the requirements of the National Red Cross Life Saving Corps. The College itself has become an affiliated member of the National Red Cross Life Saving Corps, having accepted the Water-Safety program of the Red Cross.

The members of the Milligan Corps are certified Examiners, qualified to give instruction in swimming and life-saving. They are also qualified to give tests and to pass candidates in life-saving work.

This corps is doing much to promote life-saving and swimming at Milligan College and we expect it to grow from year to year.

J. TOBE EDWARDS
Coach

Tobe can take prospect and make real baseball players out of them. His material was about average, but he tutored and developed it into one of the greatest teams that ever graced the Buffalo diamond. He is without a doubt, the best baseball coach in college circles today.

BRODIE THOMPSON
Captain
R.F.

Captain Thompson was a fly hawk of rare ability, and he snagged many hard hit balls in the right section. Brodie proved himself a capable leader and his hitting was well over the three hundred mark.

Baseball Season Review

Not a team in Tennessee was able to stem the tide of base hits and runs that flowed from the Buffalo bats, and for the second time in two years Milligan College won the State Championship. Tennessee and Carson-Newman fell like chaff before the wind, in face of the local club, while the Milligan pitchers held the opposition to a normal amount of runs.

Milligan piled up an average of thirteen wins, and Lenoir-Rhyne, from North Carolina was the only team to score more runs than Milligan.

The University of Tennessee, Carson-Newman, Lincoln Memorial University, and Cumberland University were among Milligan's most formidable foes, but they could do nothing against the mighty Orange and Black.

Captain Thompson led his team with undue skill and played a great game himself. The outstanding players were S. Thompson, Springfield, Ferguson and Boswell.

CLARK GRANT C. F.

This Soddy youth was a dependable hitter and a brilliant fielder. Grant is a natural ball player and was indispensable in the Milligan line-up. He should be a great star ere he completes his college course.

CARLOS SPRINGFIELD Catcher

Carlos was a great receiver, a good judge of hitters, a great thrower, and one of the best hitters on the squad. His work led Milligan on to the championship. He caught every game and worked his pitcher with uncanny ability.

JACK THOMASON Second Base

This sterling athlete added the third letter to his string by earning a regular berth on the baseball team. He was fast and was a good fielder. He led the team in hitting on the road trips and proved to be a consistent player throughout the entire season.

T. J. BOSWELL CAPT.-ELECT Third Base

"Tete" seldom made an error, and in every game of the season his fielding was one of the bright spots of the game. He could hit and he could think. In fact "Tete" could do most everything necessary in a ball game. His popularity won for him the captaincy for 1927.

BUFFALO

W. THOMPSON
PITCHER

W. THOMPSON
Pitcher

"Shine" was a valuable asset to the team. He could play outfield, he could pitch, and he could hit. Thompson held U. T. in the palm of his mit at Knoxville, and the Buffaloes romped on with the victory. A dependable and brilliant player.

STONEY SMALLWOOD
Manager

Stoney proved himself to be one of the greatest baseball managers of Milligan College. Always on the job at the right time, with the right thing—these facts made Stoney an ideal manager.

SMALLWOOD

TRAVIS
PITCHER

THELMA TRAVIS
Pitcher

"Firecracker" had his best year and one that any pitcher should be proud of. His hurling was far above the average all during the season, and he was one of Edward's most reliable pitchers.

SPENCER STOUT
Pitcher

Spencer Stout possessed ability, but lacked experience. After a few years of playing he should develop into a first class college pitcher.

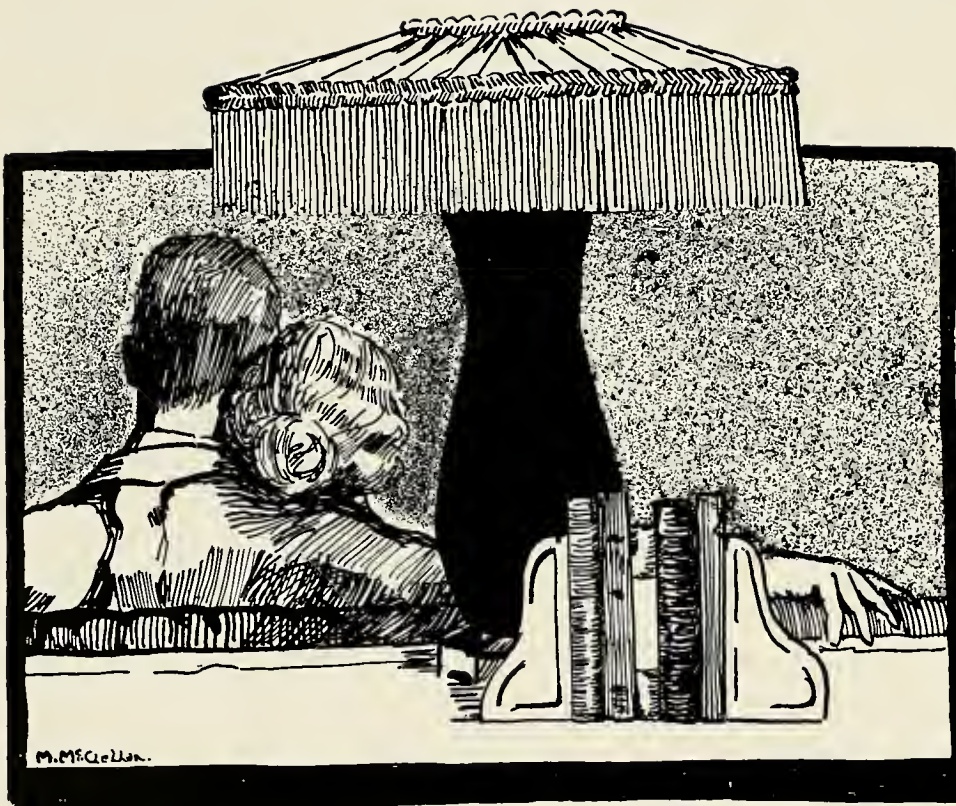

STOUT
PITCHER

Tennis Team

For the first time, Milligan is playing regular intercollegiate tennis. Coach Eyler has taken the squad into hand and many have reported for action. Plenty of good material is in evidence and any one making the squad will have plenty of competition.

Manager Reynolds has worked out a good schedule for the Buffalo Net Men, and this first year should be a good one for Milligan on the court.

UNLESS IT IS SERVICEABLE IT ISN'T ECONOMICAL

Back in 1902, when Mr. Penney laid the foundation for this colossal effort to serve the people in a manner that would eminently safeguard their buying of daily needs, the fullest consideration was given not only to the maintaining of prices at the lowest possible figures but to the maintaining of quality at the highest possible degree.

Price alone is not a safe basis upon which to make investment. A vast expansion of land may be valueless because of the absence of water and the impossibility of irrigation.

When the goods are of reliable quality and will insure satisfactory service and the price is low, then there is value that is deserving.

The purchasing power of this Nation-Wide Institution assures to the patrons of all its Stores A SAVING POWER THAT HAS NO PEER IN THE UNITED STATES.

That power to save money is yours to enjoy at this store.

After High School—What?

High school graduation is a turning point. With the many graduates each spring there is an over supply of young people who are not especially prepared for any particular work. A few find positions at an ordinary wage with little future and remain at the same level until they are in a rut and fear to leave because they are not fitted to take advancement.

The Business College specializes in its training. It takes a short time, compared with the four-year college course. It gives these high school graduates a fundamental knowledge of business that makes it possible for them to earn a good salary in a desirable position.

The aspirant to higher education can well afford to take the Business College course before entering college. There is satisfaction in knowing that one is capable of "stepping out" any time and supporting himself if necessary. Young people always need spending money and are often obliged to earn the money for college expenses. Business College graduates are capable of doing this.

We Help a Young Man Put His Best Foot Forward

The successful man looks successful.
So does the man who hasn't "arrived" but is on his way. This point is that the appearance of success is invaluable to the forward going man—and it's often merely a matter of clothes.

The man who looks well to his mirror, his friends and his associates is in an easy frame of mind. He steps out with his best foot forward and an air of success in his stride.
